An Unsophisticated Speculator.—Within the last week, there came up to the city from one of the rural districts an unsophisticated individual to invest some of his wealth in town lots, or to trade some of his country property for a local habitation in the city vast. Taking up his abode in a private boarding house, he was assigned by the landlady to the best room in the house, all others being filled. The hour for tea having passed, a certain portion of time was spent by our hero in social chat, until his rural hour for bed arrived, when he repaired to his room, which was brilliantly lighted with gas. Not long was he in repose, but to put out his light required rather longer than undressing. At length, under several ineffectual efforts, he succeeded, and snuggly encased himself under the mosquito net, and dropped quickly away into the arms of Morphous.

Towards morning, however, his slumbers became difficult, and his breathing hard, though the still slept on. His neighbors in the adjoining rooms were ousted from their beds at an early hour, unable to sleep. The disturbance was traced to rural's room, and he was finally aroused sufficiently to get up and admit the landlady. Then was apparent the difficulty.

Rural's gas-burner was throwing its delightful fumes into the room with all the force the gas works were able to put on.

Rural explained that he had great difficulty, but succeeded, after several efforts, in "blowing out the light." He declared himself satisfied with the city, and would "be damned if he'd live in the cussed place." Hardly waited for breakfast, before he packed up and left for his native mountains, with no further desire to trade in city lots, or off to his sweet country air for town stonewall.

ENGLAND AND AMERICA.—It has been accomplished. England and America talk together familiarly as friend to friend.

A message came through yesterday afternoon, purporting to come from Queen Victoria, congratulating the President upon the successful accomplishment of the greatest work of ancient or modern times. The telegraph office was for some hours the greater center of attraction. Rockets, Roman candles, serpents, wheels, cracklers, &c., were let off; a Bengal light was set up in the street, and the office was brilliantly illuminated. We confess, however, to some doubts as to the genuineness of the dispatch.

JUDGE COURT.—John Murphy was brought up for drunkenness and disorderly conduct, and was held to bail in $200 to behave himself for three months. Jeremiah McCarthy, on the same charge, was held in $100 for two months. Jas. McConnell, Thos. and Thos. McElroy, on the same charge, with the additional one of carrying concealed weapons. McElroy was discharged, and the other two held to bail in $100 each to answer to a misdemeanor.

Wm. H. Ward was arrested as a suspected felon, and for being disorderly. He was held to bail in $100 for three months.

Wm. Gilpin was arrested for assaulting Chas. Gramp, but was discharged.

Thos. Swift had Patrick Cunniff and wife up on a peace-warrant. Mr. Cunniff gave his recognizance in $300 to keep the peace.

THEATRE.—The audience was quite a large one last evening, and greeted the Martinet Troupe with the usual enthusiasm. The performances, as they always have been, were full of drollery and fun. Between two of the pieces, Stage Manager Lorton came before the curtain, and announced the receipt of the Queen's message, and then read it. The audience received the announcement and the message with hearty and prolonged cheers, which were responded to by the Orchestra striking up "God Save the Queen," and following with "Yankee Doodle."

The theater is really a very beautiful place, and reflects great credit upon the Manager, and all concerned in the ornamentation.

This evening, besides the performance of the Martinet Troupe, we are to have those of F. S. O'neill's wonderfully trained horse Johnstone. W. S. will look to see a crowded house.

ATTEN. TED BOREBRY.—Yesterday evening, about 10 o'clock, while Mr. S. J. Jones and his family were strolling in front of the cigar store, on Third street, some one entered the back of the shop and got into the back room. The attention of the family was called to that part of the house by the baby stirring in the cradle. One of the ladies went into the room and discovered a man crawling on his hands and feet across the room. She gave the alarm, and the scamp fled without succeeding in accomplishing his purpose. The watch are on his track, and no doubt, have arrested him ere this. The city is full of such scoundrels at this time.

FIGHT.—A couple of men pitched into each other yesterday morning, on Third street, between Main and Market, but were separated before doing each other much damage. They were coal men, but whether boatmen or not, we do not know.

THE UNITED SONS OF ERIN.—We learn that yesterday, as Mr. Symmes was riding in his buggy, his horse took fright and ran off, throwing Mr. S. out, near the corner of First and Chestnut, from which he was taken to the bathing establishment on Second street. Mr. S. was severely bruised in several places, but the physician called in—Dr. Bemis—did not think him in a dangerous condition.

TRIBUTE TO GEN. WM. S. PITCHER.

At a meeting of the members of the Bar, and officers of the Courts of Louisville, held on Monday, the 16th of August, 1858, on motion, Hon. C. W. Logan was called to the Chair, and Will R. Hervey appointed Secretary.

The Hon. Henry Pirtle having announced the death of Gen. Wm. S. Pitcher, the following gentlemen were appointed a committee to report suitable resolutions to the meeting, viz: Hon. Henry Pirtle, D. W. Wilson, W. S. Bodley, John Roberts, A. M. St. John, and W. A. H. user, Esqrs. After retiring, the committee reported the following preamble and resolutions, which are unanimously adopted:

BUSINESS.—The business, from Cincinnati, in 250 daily paper, 76 bxs news, 32 pgs weekly, 250 dms brooms, 44 big coffee, 500 pigs dry goods, drgs, &c., and returned with a very good trip.

The Mariner, from St. Louis, discharged 61 barrels hemp.

A flatboat, from Greenupburg, came in with 70 tons pig iron.

Moses McLean left for Memphis with a fair trip of bacon, pork, lard, bagging, and rope.

Mariner, from St. Louis, discharged 99 barrels cotton.

THE NEW ORLEANS DELTA OF THE 14TH INST.

Our city was visited on Sunday with two showers, the first being a very light one and the second, which commenced about three o'clock in the afternoon—was a heavy rain, which continued during the night, and was accompanied with very heavy thunders.

The rain came down in torrents for about one hour, and completely flooded the city in every part, washing away planks, posts, and other light articles. The water of the low-grade streets, in the rear of the city, was so high that boats could not pass. The Father of Waters (the Old Mississippi) had been led up upon us, instead of a shower of rain. We look upon this as the effect of the hand of God.

REVIEW.—That we deplore the untimely loss of our dear friend, and associate in the legal profession.

BOOKS.—The New Orleans Delta of the 14th instant.

OUR CITY NAVIGATION.—On Center street, we are told, between Chestnut and Broadway, in the rear of the Orphan Asylum, and direct on the sidewalk, is a pond of luxuriant water, in which the boys could sail boats if the premises were not occupied by hogs. At the denizens of Center street seriously object to the hogs and the water, it would, perhaps, be well to have the hole filled up and the sidewalk paved.

NEWS.—We have a letter from Henderson, Ky., under date of August 12th, inclosing two dollars, with the direction to continue the Weekly Democrat, to change the office to Zion. The writer has forgotten to add his name to the letter, and we cannot credit his account until we hear from him again. Send your name.

WE WOULD CALL THE ATTENTION OF COUNTRY AND CITY BUYERS.—To the auction sale of S. G. Henry & Co., this morning. They offer a very desirable line of goods, adapted to the same trade. The firm is renowned for selling with out reserve.

LOST.—P. Varble, falls pilot, lost, on Monday, the 16th, a small gold gob-chain, with a hook on one end; he thinks it lost on Clay or Fulton street. He will give a liberal reward to the finder, if left for him at the Union House, on Fulton street, above Preston. d2s STRANGERS.—Visiting the city should, before they return home, supply themselves with Hurley's invaluable Quick Yeast. Country housekeepers are judges of these articles.

NOTICE.—There was a rumor on the streets yesterday of a prize fight that is about to take place. Prize-fighting in August! Augh!

ARREST.—The usual number of arrests for drunkenness were made yesterday. We believe nothing of interest transpired during the whole day; in fact, our town is very quiet.

OUR READERS.—Our readers will bear in mind Mr. C. C. Spencer's sale this morning, of Wines, Liquors, Groceries, and Glassware. He informs us that in addition, he will sell a lot of Lemons, Nails, Saleratus, and Pineapple Cheese.

WE ARE INDEPTED TO MR. P. L. SHULHAUER, for Pittsburg papers of the 14th instant.

TO CONSUMPTIVE INVALIDS.—We have this day received, by express, Double Skirted Silk Robes, Two dounced Silk Robes, new style Shawl, De Launes, one hundred dozen Bajou's Kid Gloves, Park Extension Turnour Skirts, Imperial Foulards, Prints and Chintz, together with a complete assortment of Linens and Domes, all of which will be offered very low. W. W. HULLINGS, Salesman.

W. W. HULLINGS, Salesman.

LABOR-SAVING MACHINE.—The most important to the public generally is a Washing Machine, manufactured by R. D. Porter & Co., of this city. These machines have been tried by a large number of our best citizens, and have given satisfaction to every one who has used them. The machines are cheap, simple, durable, and not liable to get out of order. A child of ten years can understand a good work of them. It is a great saving of time and labor; it does not rub off the buttons, injure the finest fabric in washing; it will wash anything from a pocket-handkerchief to the largest size bed-quilt, and do it perfectly.

This evening, besides the performance of the Martinet Troupe, we are to have those of F. S. O'neill's wonderfully trained horse Johnstone. W. S. will look to see a crowded house.

THE NEW YORK EVENING POST.—The 13th, says:

There is a careful canvas of the money market, we are further satisfied that the better feeling noticed for a good part of the day is not to be attributed to the fact that the market is not obliged to go so far for a borrower. Whether this change will ripen into a permanent general improvement in the money market, we are not yet prepared to say.

THE NEW YORK EVENING POST.—The 13th, says:

There is a very little doing to-day, and nothing to indicate a general improvement in the money market is unchanged. Good paper continues scarce, and we have no cause to regret the present state of things.
